Let's Party!

The K 120 Ball in the Grand Ballroom at the Sebel Albert Park promises to be a fantastic night and one of the highlights of Korowa's 120th Anniversary! Behind the scenes, the K 120 Ball Committee members have been working hard to ensure a great night for all with delicious food and wine, great music and fabulous art, together with a multitude of silent auction items.

As a School, we have identified the three projects which will benefit from funds raised by the K 120 Ball. These projects are:

New Audiovisual Control System for the Beatrice K Guyett Assembly Hall – All students in the School are involved in Musical Productions, Assemblies and special events such as House Arts in the Hall. This system will improve performance lighting, lighting and sound controls, and allow students to use the system more easily.

Junior School Equipment – When our Junior School classes are fully re-located in their newly renovated building, we know that there will be a need for displays and equipment that we did not have in the 'old' building. We hope that the funds raised by the K 120 Ball will provide something special for every class.

ELC Playground – Already commenced improvements have made a difference to the learning and play of our youngest students. With additional funds from the K 120 Ball, we will be able to extend the scope of these improvements.

With the generous support of our sponsors, some of these projects are already well on the way to being realised – your generosity tonight will help us to ensure that we continue to provide the best possible facilities for every Korowa student.

Have a great night – I look forward to seeing you on the dance floor!

Christine Jerkine

Acknowledgements

Well, it has certainly been an amazing journey for Korowa over 120 years. From humble beginnings, the school has grown to become one of the state's top-ranked schools, without ever losing sight of its mission of preparing remarkable young women to make a positive impact on the world. You would not be reading this catalogue if you did not share that vision, of your daughters attending a school with a strong focus on the individual, outstanding educational programs – reflected in excellent results – backed by strong sporting, cultural and performing arts traditions and above all, relentless positive reinforcement.

As you know the school has a packed program of events to celebrate the very special milestone of 120 years. Central to this program is the K Ball, the second such event. This year the K Ball is being held in a bigger venue, with a great line-up of entertainment, and the night promises to be a special one indeed.

As was so successfully borne out by the inaugural K Ball in 2008, the K Ball is an initiative designed not only to bring together the Korowa community (and guests and friends) to celebrate our involvement with this great school, but to raise funds for major projects that will continue to enhance it in the future. The K Ball is an event supported by the K Club, the KPA, Foundation, School Council and Korovians. But in bringing you the magnificent event that you see in front of you, a dedicated and tireless team of volunteers has worked hard and achieved wonders. I would like formally to acknowledge these contributions.

Firstly, enormous thanks go to Stephen Judd, for his tremendous efforts in the key areas of sponsorship, and graphic design, through his design firm, Judds. Stephen has attracted more than $20,000 of sponsorship for this event, and is also responsible for the "look" of the K Ball, and this catalogue.

We could not have mounted this event without the contributions of Andrew Rook, with his tireless and innovative work on the whole booking process, and Melissa Ross' fabulous work in sales management and managing the minutes and agendas of the Ball Committee meetings. Nor could we have done without Di Wickham's work in running the finance role, Rob Turnbull's work on communications and Marianne Wright's experience in funding and raffles, as well as the marketing expertise of James Wright, the chairman of Foundation, who was also highly valuable because he headed the 2008 organising team.

Lee Johnson did great work as project manager of the K120 Ball, while Drew Downie thoroughly researched potential venues and was our prime negotiator with the Sebel. Our music guru and staging co-ordinator, Mike O'Hehir, has once again been instrumental in ensuring that the Ball will be a true "dance night" for all attendees. The venue team of Liz Burgess and Jacqui Dowd have put together a menu of fine food and wines enhanced by the outstanding themed decorations.

In organising items for fund-raising, we have been very well-served by KPA President Michael Read, who has again sourced a wonderful array of high-quality works for the Art Auction; and David Hays, whose Silent Auction sub-committee (Rosemary Bonacci, Yolande Burnett, Jane Dunn and Jill Cashin) has worked hard to put together a wide and interesting array of items. Thanks also to James Dunn, who has put together the fantastic 'show bag' of goodies to take home, and for acting as tonight's MC.

Huge thanks are also due to our school liaison helpers from the Korowa Development Office, Sarah Brook, Kate Babic and Fiona Best.

Finally, the biggest thanks must go to you, the people who bought tickets and came along – on behalf of the K120 Ball organising committee, I wish you a very enjoyable night!

Co-President, K Club

The Live Auction: Lots 1 - 11

Guests will be able to preview the items for sale before the auction via the school website and on the night at the venue.

Immediately after the fall of the hammer, the successful bidder will be approached by a K Ball Assistant to arrange payment.

Live Auction conditions

1. The auction items will be on display and are deemed to have been inspected.
2. Subject to any reserve price, the highest bidder will be declared the purchaser.
3. The auctioneer is in charge of the bidding and any dispute arising will be resolved by the auctioneer.
4. The auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bid.
5. All sales are final with no exchange or refund.

Up the Anti

We've pushed ourselves to the limit

Now we may not have had to wrestle crocodiles, tangle with poisonous snakes or cheat death on the highest mountains, but we have discovered something ancient civilizations have known for centuries. The exciting health benefits of exotic superfruits.

Unique fruits like Açai from Brazil, Mangosteen from Thailand, Pomegranate from the Middle East and Goji from the Himalayas, all have significant health benefits and provide an extremely high source of antioxidants. Much greater than that of most regular fruits and even green tea or red wine.

Our new AntiOx™ juice shots, health bars and sugar free dark chocolate, have all been created to provide an easy and convenient way for you to enjoy a delicious blend of these exotic superfruits.

All of our products have incredibly high levels of antioxidants to make a REAL difference to your health and wellbeing. And what's more - they taste great too!

All AntiOx™ products come with an ORAC* rating on the pack. It's the only way to be sure you're getting the real deal. Don't settle for cheap imposters - just check the label.

We're setting a new benchmark on taste, nutrition and convenience.

So Up The Anti on health and enjoy AntiOx™ today!

Signed lower right,

Frame Size: 840mm x 800mm,

Image: 488mm x 484mm

$800 - $1200

Depicts a bomber flying towards buildings in Baghdad. The work was created in response to the first Gulf War in 1990-1991. The image depicts a high tech weapon, simplified, crude and child like. The contradiction comments how modern warfare is still a primitive crude activity and the simplification of the drawings questions too how the issues of that war came to be seen.

Title: Yarra River

Victoria Newnham / born 1956

Frame Size: 390mm x 330mm

$500 - $750

I often ride my bike along the Yarra and sometimes I take my paints in a panier. There is always different light and new activities by the river bank. I liked the way the city buildings rose up behind the bridge. It is one of Melbourne's softer days.

Lot 10 (Base Right)

Title: Woolami

Victoria Newnham / born 1956

Frame Size: 520mm x 430mm

$600 - $800

One Beautiful day I explored the hills behind the Bass Highway where the far distant view is of Philip Island. These hills rise steeply and the views on either side are magnificent. There is a wonderful sense of timelessness reinforced by the everyday work which continues on the farms nestled into the hillsides.

About the Artist.

Victoria Newnham was born in England in 1956 and came to Australia via the Solomon Islands in 1960. She drew and painted from the time she could hold a pencil. Educated in Melbourne, finishing with a degree in town planning in 1978.

Through the years of work and family she never stopped painting and water colour has been her predominant medium. Artists she has studied include June Woods, David Taylor and Joseph Zbukvich.

During recent years works have been sold privately and through art shows and exhibitions. She was part of the Class A.C.T exhibition at A.G.R.A in October 2008. She is fascinated by light and mood and lately is drawn to complexity as an aspect of a painting.

Established in 1874. For over 130 years and five generations of family we have been serving Melbourne. Specialising in Diamonds, South Sea Pearls & Antique Jewellery.

George Catanach created the Catanach's brand over 130 years ago, with the premise that quality and beauty must go hand in hand when crafting a piece of fine jewellery.

His legacy has continued for over five generations and today, David Catanach (William's great grandson) carries on this legacy with the Catanach's Collection. Catanach's has a spectacular selection of fine diamonds, offering the beauty and gentle brilliance of old-cut diamonds and the wide and varied choice of modern and fancy-cut stones, designed as a solitaire or teamed with beautiful coloured stones.

Catanach's Jewellers opened in Broome in 1999 with a beautiful collection of South Sea Cultured and Keshi pearls as well as the fine Jewellery that Catanach's is so renowned for. Renamed in 2006, Catalina Pearls boasts an extensive collection of mother-of-pearl antique pieces, nautical lines including bronze divers, compasses, telescopes, some beautiful antique Jewellery and of course Broome South Sea Cultured and Keshi Pearls. Catanach's Art Galleries in Armadale and Broome successfully exhibit a board range of artwork created by both established and emerging artists.
